TWO ACQUITTED IN COUNTY COURT

Two bootlegging cases were tried in the county court late yesterday afternoon, and both resulted in the acquittal of the defendants. The first of these was Bob Peters, a negro. The other was Geo. Bean, charged with selling some sort of substitute for beer, but which the jury did not consider was a violation of the law.

The civil docket will be called Monday morning.

HOW PAYMENTS WILL BE MADE

SECRETARY ANNOUNCES RULES GOVERNING INDIAN PER CAPITA PAYMENTS.

Washington, Oct. 5.—Acting Secretary Adams of the Interior Department today issued formal regulations for the distribution of $50 per capita to members of the Choctaw, Chickasaw and Seminole tribes of Oklahoma. All payments under the regulations are to be made under the supervision of Superintendent Kelsey of Union Agency, by the cashier and special disbursing agent of the agency. The cashier is required to furnish a special bond of $100,000. A brief summary of the regulations follows:

Payments to the Choctaws and Chickasaws excludes freedmen, but includes Mississippi Choctaws. Payments to the Choctaws, Chickasaws and Seminoles shall be made out of any money in the federal treasury belonging to these Indians. The Mississippi Choctaws shall be paid from a designated fund. The payments will be based upon the final rolls of the three tribes as approved by the secretary of the interior and corrected to date.

The payments due "unrestricted" adults in their own right shall be made to them in person or by official check to their order except where they are under legal disability. The term "unrestricted" is held to apply to freedmen, intermarried whites and persons enrolled as having less than one-half Indian blood.

Payments due "unrestricted minors" or adults under legal disability shall be paid to their guardians or curators, except in cases where, in the judgment of the disbursing agent, they should be temporarily withheld. Upon proper showing, payments may be made to the father, mother or other near relatives of minors for whom no guardians have been appointed, or withheld in the discretion of the disbursing agent.

The disbursing agent is authorized to temporarily withhold payment from adults of the restricted class, wholly or in part, if in his judgment there is good cause for such action. Otherwise payments will be made in person or by check as in the case of unrestricted adults. Payments due restricted adults under legal disability may be made to their guardians or curators, or to some other person for them, in the discretion of the disbursing officer.

Payments due unrestricted minors shall not be made to guardians or curators, except where the disbursing officers feel that payments should be made. In all other cases payment should be made to the father, mother or other suitable person.

Where payments are made to guardians, copies of their original letters of guardianship must be produced for inspection, duly certified by Superintendent Kelsey, or a certificate of the probate court.

Payments may be made to minors in person, or by check, the same as to adults, provided the officers in charge are satisfied it will be for their best interests.

Before payments are made to any heirs of deceased persons proof must be produced of death and heirship.

No arrangements shall be made or allowed for the furtherance of the interests of any merchant, trader or other creditor of the Indians, and no creditors or their collectors or representatives shall be allowed in the office where payments are being made. Powers of attorney will not be recognized nor will any order given by an Indian to another person for his share of the distribution be honored.

TRIPOLI IS CAPTURED

ITALIANS IN POSSESSION OF FORTIFICATIONS—TURKS EVACUATE CITY.

London, Friday, Oct. 6.—A telegram from Turin to the Daily Mail says:

"It is officially announced that Italian sailors landed at Tripoli today (Thursday), hoisted the Italian colors, and occupied the forts, where many dead were discovered. The Italians are now masters of Tripoli."

Fire Directed Against Outer Forts.
"After the shelling of Tripoli on Tuesday the operations were resumed yesterday (Wednesday) morning. The Italian warships again directed their fire only against the outer forts. It was feared that if the inner forts were shelled damage would be done to the town."

"The shore batteries in the Sultanik and Hamidie forts were dismantled. Then the cruiser Kuiseppe Garibaldi entered the harbor, and two officers with a detachment of marines disembarked and made their way to the Hamidie fort."

"They found that it had been evacuated and that the Turks had carried away with them the sights of the guns. The bodies of three Turkish artillerymen lay in the fort."

"Up to the present, despite the bombardment and despite the Italian excursion ashore, there is no sign of surrender on the part of the Turks. The bombardment will, therefore, continue until the town capitulates or until all the Turkish troops have left Tripoli for the interior. Even if Tripoli capitulates today or tomorrow there will be an interval of several days more before the arrival and disembarkation of the army of occupation."

An Offer of Mediation May Follow.

"When the army has been landed an offer of mediation by Germany or some other power is expected to follow immediately."

"The Tripoli lighthouse having been destroyed by some of the first shots fired, Admiral Faravelli has given orders for its immediate reconstruction, as it is of the greatest utility to the Italian fleet."

Offers $15,000,000 for Segregated Land

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 6.—Representing a syndicate of Eastern capitalists, A. A. Perry of Coalgate mailed to V. M. Locke, principal chief of the Choctaw Nation, an offer of $15,000,000 for the segregated coal and asphalt lands of the Choctaw and Chickasaw nations. The proposition includes both the surface and minerals. The same offer was made while Green McCurtain was chief, but when it reached Washington, the secretary of the interior declined to approve it in any phase.

It was the department's expressed policy at that time to dispose of the lands in small areas, a thing impracticable from the purchasers' standpoint. Mr. Perry says that the offer will reveal whether the proposition can be turned and that the figure stated is not necessarily all that might be paid.

DECISION EXPECTED ON EMPLOYERS' LIABILITY LAW

Washington, Oct. 6.—A decision by the federal supreme court on the constitutionality of the so-called employers' liability law of 1908 is expected Oct. 16. Because the first employers' liability law was declared unconstitutional by the supreme court and because the court has taken so long to consider the present case, the opinion is awaited with much suspense.

Prominent among these are two cases involving the extent of the application of the federal safety appliance acts.

In the case of the Southern Railway company the question has arisen whether the government can collect a penalty for the alleged failure to install safety appliances on a car which carried a shipment from one point in Alabama to another in that state, simply because the car was used sometimes in interstate commerce. The lower court answered this in the affirmative.

FREDERICK MAN FREED OF MURDER CHARGE

Frederick, Ok., Oct. 5.—Mack Gregory was cleared of the charge of wife murder by a jury Thursday in just thirty-six minutes. The charge against Gregory was preferred by his father-in-law last March immediately after Gregory had superintended the burial of his wife's body at Navajo, Jackson county.

The prosecution, through State Chemist Edwin DeBarr, sought to show that Mrs. Gregory had died as a result of strychnine poisoning, and offered as motive testimony which it was claimed tended to show the influence of another woman.

The jury took but two ballots. It was expected something sensational would develop at the trial but there seemed to be little in the evidence to justify the accusation of murder being brought against the defendant. Public sentiment generally is with Mr. Gregory and it is said at the time of his arrest his neighbors would have qualified for over one hundred thousand dollars on his bond. The trial lasted over three days, attracted an unusually large number of women and there were between fifty and one hundred witnesses examined.

Jno. P. Crawford left for Oklahoma City this afternoon to be present at the meeting of the state committee tomorrow. He will represent Ponotoc county as a proxy for Dr. Laird of Roff, the committeeman.

Woman's Nature

It is the nature of women to suffer uncomplainingly, the discomforts and fears that accompany the bearing of children. Motherhood is their crowning glory, and they brave its sufferings for the joy that children bring. No expectant mother need suffer, however, during the period of waiting, nor feel that she is in danger when baby comes, if Mother's Friend is used in preparation of the event. Mother's Friend relieves the pain and discomfort caused by the strain on the different ligaments, overcomes nausea by counteraction, prevents backache and numbness of limbs and soothes the inflammation of breast glands. Its regular use fits and prepares every portion of the mother's system for a proper and natural ending of the term, and it assures for her a quick and complete recovery. Mother's Friend is sold at drug stores. Write for free book for expectant mothers.

The Shame of the Age

BY T. O. COLLINS

The shame of the age is accomplished.

A woman young and virile with life only a few weeks ago had her baby torn from her arms and herself hurried to a prison which is to be hereafter her only earthly habitation.

The prison doors have opened to receive her and then closed with a click of destiny.

Turning on the threshold of her cell for one final look at the outside world she lifted her arms above her head in a last mute protest against fate and the light from her window threw her shadow on the floor.

And that shadow, lengthening on and on but losing none of its blackness in its lengthening and darkens door sill of the whole civilized world. This poor and unfortunate young woman is Mrs. Angeline Neapolitina, and the crime for which she has forfeited her life liberty is the murder of her husband in defense of her honor the crowning jewel of her womanhood.

Ignorant and poor, Angelina had two endowments, good looks and good principles. She was married to a man in whose nature, dissipation had killed every good instinct. Finding the labor of his hands could not pay the price of his increased depravity, this human beast contracted to sell the honor of his wife for money for his own vices. A companion on the same brutal plane, but with a larger payroll, was found. The terms were agreed upon and the purchaser taken to the home where the young wife cared for her small children. Brutally the husband told her of his contract and bade her surrender herself to the gloating purchaser.

Indignation, protestation, refusal were of no avail, the buyer showed his money and the beastly husband gave his command. Then the woman did what any woman under like horrible conditions would have done, all other defense failing, with her slender woman hands she slew the husband, who would have forced dishonor upon her.

The next scene in the pitiful tragedy was in the court room, with a judge sentencing the woman to death for killing a man no higher in the moral scale than the lowest cur. Poor girl was to die. But the executioner's hand was stayed by the fact that she was to become a mother, for the law says that one life, not two, goes for the expiation of a crime. The babe unborn came between the woman and the gallows.

While she waited in her cell for the coming of the child, her pitiful story spread the world over by an outraged press.

The Canadian authorities were in consequence deluged with petitions until at last they yielded and the poor woman's sentence was changed from death to life imprisonment.

Under the unflinching eyes of the law she sewed the little garments of the child under her heart, under the eyes of that same cruel law she crooned her first lullaby to the new born babe.

Then came the final act in the drama. Her child was taken from her and sent to be reared in a public institution, and she, with every impulse and every instinct of her nature calling for life, liberty and happiness, she was thrown in prison which is to be her living tomb.

Men require women to be pure. Then if a woman slays her would-be betrayer rather than surrender her virtue shall she be punished for it. If she defends the honor that is dear to her and expected of her, shall she be scourged by a man-made law until death brings her her only release.

The woman who fight and slays for sake of her virtue fights not for herself alone, but for her whole sex. I say this woman's sentence should have been a pardon, not a sentence of commutation. Today she should be a free woman, free to gather her children about her and to rear them with her own ideas of morality. The world needs women like that, women who will kill a bad man rather than that he shall kill their souls.

Angelina should be set at liberty. The good men and women of this country owe it to themselves to see that she is freed. Until she is, her shadow will darken the world and take high christianity of our day.

Why Taft Fails.

Nearly every other civilized nation in the world is getting along faster than the United States in this struggle to move with the times. Great Britain, the most democratic and therefore in certain ways the most wieldy of these nations, is actually changing not only her outward form of government but even her economic balance in the desperate struggle to catch up with the new facts. Our own nation, with its immense centralized vested interests holding on to property "rights" and resisting all change is one of the most puzzling and dangerous cases of arrested development in the world.

In the light of these facts we are frankly sorry that Taft is again a candidate. Even if he can be re-elected he cannot possibly stop this worldwide forward movement toward democracy. He personally cannot even delay it much. He can, in fact, do little more than get run over. There have been many times in the world's history when Tafts were needed.
There will be times again. But a Taft today is a danger-spot. He calls to mind, to indulge in another metaphor a stout-hearted and muscular volunteer on a boat in the rapids, devoting himself to the task of heading up stream while his craft sweeps blindly on down among the rocks.

We need steersmen today, not resisters. We need men who look forward, not back. The men of today are the very Wilsons and LaFollettes who, to Taft's mind, mean only disaster. There is nothing local about these modern types; they are springing up the world around. Even La-Follette is a very mild reformer indeed beside the British Lloyd-George.

The rulers of tomorrow are certain to be the very "people," the very "rabble" and "mob" that so disturb Taft in his business of dealing in a dignified manner with recognized and imposing officials and judges and "leaders." And the "will of the people" that is inevitably to prevail is the will, not at all of a few ancient gentlemen in knee-breeches, but of the living, struggling, hoping human beings of today and tomorrow.—Success Magazine.

An All-South Conference.

Chattanooga, Tenn., Oct. 6.—At Nashville tomorrow will close one of the most unique campaigns ever conducted in the south. It has been waged to arouse interest in an All-South Conference, which has been called to meet in Memphis on October 9th. The campaign began in El Paso on Sept.
12th, and has covered the states of Texas, Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Florida, Georgia, South Carolina, North Carolina and Tennessee.
The men who have carried this strenuous campaign forward are both well known. One of them, Col. D. C. Collier is director general of the Panama-California Exposition, to be held in San Diego, Cal., in 1915. He has a knowledge of this country that perhaps but few men could claim. When he landed in Savannah on his tour of the Southern states, it rounded out his forty seventh trip from ocean to ocean. Col. Collier is well known on the Pacific coast, where he has extensive interests. Mr. G. Grosvenor Dawe, traveling with Col. Collier, needs no introduction to the people of the south. The Southern Commercial congress was conceived by him, and he is now serving that congress as its managing director. From this organization's headquarters in Washington, D. C., Mr. Dawe has been conducting a brilliant campaign for the south and southern development. He has given a close study to the south's needs and the nation's development.

He it was who declared: "A greater nation must be built through a great er south."

Col. Collier and Mr. Dawe have appeared before the commercial bodies of the principal cities in practically every southern state to arouse interest of these organizations in the All-South Conference at Memphis. To this conference has been invited the representatives of 1300 commercial bodies in the southern states, hotel men and passenger traffic men of all rail roads operating in southern territory.
It is expected that from this Memphis conference of the south's leading men will go a dignified and compelling invitation to the nation to see the south.

The call for the All-South Conference was issued on August 1st, and is signed by the Southern Commercial Congress, the Southern Commercial Secretaries' Association, the Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, the Houston Chamber of Commerce, the New Orleans Progressive Union, the Memphis Business Men's League, and the Panama-California Exposition. Information received is to the effect that the success of the Memphis Conference is assured.

Fresh from their five thousand mile tour of the South, Col. Collier and Mr. Dawe arrived in Chattanooga this morning and report the movement they are carrying forward heartily endorsed by all the commercial bodies they have visited. Both stated they were highly pleased with the success of their trip. They predict a meeting of immense influence at Memphis Monday.

Shipping Cattle to Osage Nation.

Tulsa, Okla., Oct. 6.—Following the abundant rains of the past thirty days and the growing of a new and exceedingly heavy crop of hay, and grass, cattlemen from Texas and other Southwestern States are pouring thousands of cattle into the vast ranges of the Osage Nation weekly. More than 20,000 steers are long horn cattle have passed through Tulsa, the gateway to the Osage during the past fortnight. The shipments are still being made and it is expected that this winter will find 200,000 head of "transient" cattle, grazing in the Osage Nation, awaiting shipment to the markets of Kansas City, Omaha, St.

Louis and Chicago.

Georgia Mob Lynches Negro.

Macon, Ga., Oct. 5.—A news dispatch states that a Dublin, Ga., negro employed as a chauffeur by a prominent Dodge county woman was lynched by a masked mob about 11 o'clock last night at Baldwin's bridge near Dublin for an attempted assault on the woman whose automobile he operated.

The negro was captured in the woods after several hours chase. He was driving the car through a lonely wood on the way back home when the crime was perpetrated. The woman's screams attracted attention.

Facts are difficult to obtain as residents of the community are reticent about the affair. The sheriff is investigating.

Turks Blow up Italian War Ship.

London, Oct. 5.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Constantinople today says a cablegram received there from a Turkish courier at Tripoli via Malta states that the Italian battleship Conte Di Cavour was blown up by a Turkish mine off Tripoli and that the crew and troops aboard the vessel perished. The dispatch adds:

"Heavy cannonading was heard last night near Samothrace, an island belonging to Turkey in the Aegean sea, about 20 miles from the coast of Thrace, where flashes from the Italian searchlights were seen.

"Violent cannonading was also heard off the coast from Prevesa.

"The newly formed national defense committee today cabled King George of England asking him to intervene."

First Acquittal in Two Years.

Durant, Okla., Oct. 5.—The record of two years has been broken with the clearing of a man named Childress, arraigned here on a charge of selling liquor. Under the administration of County Attorney J. T. McIntosh enforcement here has been rigid, and not a single man arrested on the charge of bootlegging has been freed with this one exception.
Attorney Paden, defending Childress, obtained from witnesses for the state on cross-examination the admission that they had reported the defendant as a result of ill-will. With this admission as the basis for his argument, Attorney Paden made one of the strongest pleas ever heard in the local courts.

Make Your Store Advertising as Much a Fixed Feature of Every Issue of This Newspaper as Is Our Editorial Page

A "feature," or department, of a newspaper wins its readers a few at a time.

Out of thousands who "scan" and "glance at" a store's advertising in this issue, a few hundred will read ALL OF THAT STORE'S ADVERTISEMENT IN THE NEXT ISSUE. But, if that store's advertising does not APPEAR IN THE NEXT ISSUE, this process of winning regular readers is broken up.

It would be so with our Editorial Page. If it did not appear REGULARLY, it would forfeit the interest and attention of MOST OF ITS READERS. And the same would be true of our Local Page, and of other feature of the paper, which build up their circles of readers surely and steadily, issue by issue.

A store's advertising gets to be MOST EFFECTIVE after it has become a REGULAR FEATURE of the paper, gaining with EVERY ISSUE new "regular readers," AND HOLDING THOSE GAINED by making the store news really important to them.

This Is the Law and "Secret" of Store-Advertising Success-- ALL OF IT!

MYRA'S CHANCE

By JANE OSBORNE

Cornelia Bennett had been studying her uncle's face in the lamp light as he sat reading his evening paper exactly as he had read it six nights out of the seven ever since she could remember. Finally, as Cornelia kept her fine gray eyes intent upon his weather-worn face, he looked up.

"Why, Cornie," he asked, "why didn't you go with your aunt and Myrie to the social? You're no hand to miss an evening out."

"You see, Uncle Frank," Cornelia began, looking straight into his face. "I want to talk to you alone. It is something you will understand better than Aunt Nellie, I think."

Mr. Davis looked puzzled. "You aren't thinking of getting married?" he suggested with a lack of conviction, for the idea was quite preposterous.

Cornelia laughed. "Uncle Frank, who in the name of common sense could any one marry? There hasn't been a man in Stanton we could marry since we were children. You know there isn't any chance here. That's just what I wanted to talk to you about."

"There are several fairish sort of young men," suggested Mr. Davis contemplatively. "There's Davy Little and young Ashley."

"Yes," interrupted Cornelia. "I knew you would say that, but they aren't the kind Myra could marry. They have always farmed it right here. You know, Uncle, Myra is one girl in a hundred."

"Yes—yes, you're right," mused Mr. Davis with humility as he watched the smoke from his pipe circle slowly above him. "She's most too fine for a farmer's wife."

"And she is twenty-five," added Cornelia.

"You must be going on twenty-nine, Cornie," exclaimed Mr. Davis. Cornelia was not interested in herself. She bent intently over the table towards him.

"I've been thinking that maybe I ought to do something for Myra," she said, "to give her a chance. She doesn't seem quite happy." Cornelia took a quick breath and came out with the surprise. "Maybe I could take her away for a season where she would meet some people and have a chance."

The look of expected annoyance came over her uncle's face.

"Cornelia, my girl," he said, "I am not as rich as I would like to be. I can give you a fair sort of home here, and you more than pay me for what little it is worth, but when it comes to traveling about—a season here and a season there—it is too much."

Cornelia laid her hand affectionately on her uncle's. "Now, you listen," she said soothingly. "Myra and I have a couple of thousand dollars that father left us and I was thinking that I might take half of that and go off with Myra to a really tip-top place. She could have a few nice clothes, so she wouldn't look out of place. It would all take a lot of money, but when you think of what it might do for Myra it seems worth while."

"You mean she might marry a rich city fellow?" asked Mr. Davis.

"It might lead to it; yes." For a few minutes the two sat in silence. Finally Mr. Davis rose and walked slowly around the room, pausing behind his niece with his strong hands on her shoulders.

"I guess you have got the right idea, Cornie," he said, "but how are you going to tell your Aunt Nellie?"

"I've thought of that," Cornelia assured him. "We—you and I—mightn't be able to convince her, but I will let Myra think that I have set my heart on going, that it is all for my sake, and that you approve. Then she will agree, and if she wants to go Aunt Nellie will agree. You know Aunt Nellie would do anything for Myra."

Mr. Davis looked at his niece in admiration. "You've been doing some deep thinking, niece," he said; "and I guess it is all for the best."

So far Cornelia's plan had worked better than she had hoped and the task of winning over Myra and her aunt was comparatively simple. Myra, who had at best the sort of indifference and unwillingness to think for herself that went with her kind of dainty prettiness, offered neither opposition nor enthusiasm. In fact, Cornelia felt a touch of disappointment that the plan she had spent so much time in working out, and which would cost so much of their small inheritance, should be met with such unaffected indifference on the part of Myra.

Things progressed rapidly. The thousand dollars was withdrawn from the savings bank where it had been resting for the past twelve years, and it was carefully apportioned—so much for clothes, so much for traveling expenses, so much for board at the hotel at the sea shore where Cornelia had decided to go, and so much for spending money. In this planning Myra took her usual lack of interest and even when it came to getting the wonderful wardrobe, she was blissfully ignorant that Cornelia spent about a fifth as much on herself as she did on her pretty sister.

As the day for their departure drew on no one showed as much interest as did the honest Mr. Davis. Each gown of the new wardrobe had to be displayed again and again to his admiring eyes, and as the two young women drove off to the railroad station, the old man actually imagined to himself that the whole scheme had been as much his own idea as it was Cornelia's.

"Mind you get a rich, handsome chap for Myra," he had whispered in Cornelia's ear with a chuckle as she kissed him good bye.

Cornelia had laughed back to her uncle, promising to keep him informed by postscripts—which he was not to read to Aunt Nellie—as to how the scheme was progressing.

Thus ran the first postscript, following a letter filled with glowing details of the trip and the magnificence of the hotel that Cornelia had chosen for Myra's campaign:

"It is true, as we have read, that these hotels always have a great many more young women than men, so what eligible men there are, are in great demand. But Myra is quite the prettiest girl here, and as soon as she is rested from the trip I am sure she will 'chipper up' and get all the attention. As I feared, it is rather unusual for two girls to be off alone at a hotel, but if I don't dance and always keep with the older women I think it won't seem strange. You know you always did say I had an oldish look for my age, and I guess it will serve me in good stead now."

The next postscript followed a letter telling of Myra's first dance:

"The sea air has done me no end of good, though I am afraid Myra hasn't got quite used to it yet. I guess she will be all right in a day or so. At the dance last night she seemed to have a good deal of attention—mostly older men though, who didn't dance. One of them, a Mr. Buxley Draper, a son of the Draper you read so much about in the paper, was with us for about an hour, and after the dance we all went down for a stroll on the board-walk. It is very nice for me as Mrs. Draper is with him and, although she is older than Aunt Nellie, I find her very companionable. She likes Myra, too, I think, as she walked back from the ocean with her. That gave her son a chance to ask me about how long we are going to be here. It is quite clear that he is interested in Myra, even at this short acquaintance. I didn't give him any satisfaction, though, as I think it is better to keep them all guessing. I asked Myra last night after she went to bed if she liked Mr. Draper, but she was too sleepy to tell me. She couldn't very well help it though. He is about thirty and just good looking enough. I am sure you would approve of him. By the way, I wore that black evening dress with my hair parted plain the way you like it. I am sure I looked ten years older than Myra."

The next postscript followed in about a week:

"I can't think what makes Myra home-sick. Does she say anything in her letters to Aunt Nellie about wanting to come home? Things have gone so far with Mr. Draper that I hate to leave now. He is with us all the time, and has decided to stay another week. Besides, Mrs. Draper has proposed bringing us home in their car. Just think of that! I don't believe Buxley has proposed to Myra yet, as they haven't been alone long enough. Usually the four of us are together."

Then came a letter from the uncle to Cornelia.

"Dear Niece," it ran; "the biggest surprise ever I had came last night when young Davy Little came over. He said Myra had written him every day since she had been gone, and now he says she has written and says she'll marry him after all she has been saying 'no' this five years. She never knew she liked him till now, she says. She wants him to come on to the sea-shore and get her right away and take her home. Hasn't she told you, and how about young Buxley Draper? I am quite counting on him."

This was Cornelia's answer:

"It's all right about Buxley Draper. Davy Little got here this morning and we are all coming home together tomorrow in the Draper's car. Maybe there will be two weddings when we get back."

"P. S. We have only spent $423 out of the $1,000, and I think it has been worth it.—Cornelia."

Boy's Remarkable Climb.

When Evey Sandalls, a sturdy five-year-old boy, went exploring alone a few days ago on the Derbyshire, England, mountains, and got lost, he caused no little worry and sensation in the village of Hayfield. Up, up, the adventurous little mountaineer climbed till he reached the top of Kinder Scout, the highest summit in the Peak district. How he climbed to such a bleak spot without injury or did not succumb to his thirty hours' exposure on the mountain side is a mystery. The summit of Kinder Scout is 2,088 feet high, and is only accessible by surmounting huge boulders and avoiding treacherous tracts of bog. His distracted father, the police and workmen searched the moors and mountain side for ten hours, eventually finding the little wanderer asleep on the edge of Kinder Falls, a cascade which tumbles down the mountain side. He was lying on some sand underneath an overhanging boulder. A false movement would have meant his death.

Industry of Education.

China is said to have established universities without providing schools where students can prepare for the universities. The business of preparing young men and women for the colleges has been developed in America to the proportions of a vast industry, and as the colleges are continually making their entrance requirements more exacting, the industry is being taxed to its capacity, qualitatively, just as ever increasing number are taxing it quantitatively.

WARRANT HOLDERS

UP AGAINST IT

Oklahoma City, Ok., Oct. 5.—Some of the holders of 1910 general revenue warrants are protesting against the action of the State Board of Equalization in failing to make a state tax levy to take up these warrants, which represent the deficiency for the fiscal year of 1910. Some of the holders of these warrants are inclined to view this action of the board virtually as a repudiation of the warrant indebtedness of the state for that year.

The total deficiency for 1910, making allowance for all assets which are now available to take up these warrants, is $2,400,000 in round numbers. By reason of the failure of the state board of equalization to make a deficiency levy to cover this amount the holders of these warrants have no chance of receiving their money until the legislature of 1913 or the people in a general election provide for a bond issue to take up this indebtedness. The State Board of Equalization next year might provide for such a levy but such action is not considered likely, as the personnel of the board will be the same at that time as at present.

The action of the board came as a surprise as the general revenue act provides that the board shall make a levy to cover current expenses for the fiscal year and also to cover any deficiency for the previous year. Some attorneys are taking the position that any holder of a general revenue warrant can bring a mandamus action and compel the state board of equalization to make a levy to cover this deficiency. It is considered likely that such suits will be brought by some of the holders of 1910 warrants.

General revenue warrants are usually accepted locally at a discount. State officials and clerks have found it difficult during the last few months to get full value for their pay slips, and many have mailed them to the towns of their residence, where banks accept them for face value as deposits. Local bankers insist they are stocked with state warrants, and cannot afford to invest further in 6 per cent paper when their money at the usual turn brings a minimum of 10 per cent.

In consequence of the situation, talk of a special session of the Legislature is revived, it being the idea that the Legislature could act upon the suggestion of the State Board of Equalization and submit to a vote of the people a bond issue of about $2,500,000 at the same time an amendment to the constitution for authority to increase the limit of bonded indebtedness of $3,000,000 since the matter is now limited to $400,000. Unless this is done, it is believed there is no other way for providing for the big debt except by an ad valorem tax levy.

In the face of a general complaint over the state against high taxes, the state board stopped at a two-mill levy for general and school purposes the former having been provided for in a levy of one-quarter of a mill. The three-quarter mills, it is estimated, will take care of the amount that is to be raised by ad valorem taxation for 1911, which is $2,323,343.83, after allowing the legal estimate of 20 per cent for delinquencies. In order to pay the entire current debt the levy would have to be sufficient to gather $4,700,000, which, upon the increased valuation, could not have been accomplished even by applying the limit constitutional rate, which is 3 1-2 mills.

Hot and Cold Stuff

The fuel problem is the first to think about when winter approaches. We can save you money on the coal bought from us before November 15. During the changing weather there is often a heavy demand for ice one day and coal the next. In order that we may keep all our teams employed and make ice deliveries promptly when needed, we will, until the above named date, sell coal at about actual cost. Good coal. No slack.

 C. F. Barrett, the well known Shawnee newspaper man, has returned to his first love, the Shawnee Herald. Mr. Barrett was the founder of the Herald, but has not been connected with it for quite awhile. He now returns as managing editor. The readers of the paper as well as all the editors of the state welcome his return to the fraternity.

The man McCabe, of the department of agriculture who felt strong enough to have Dr. Wiley fired from the board having in charge the enforcement of the pure food laws, probably knows how it feels to get left.
 He showed up so badly when the light was turned on that it has become necessary for Secretary Wilson to permit him to "resign" while the intrepid doctor, who defied the big food poisoners goes serenely on.

An exchange asks: "What would you do if every time you put your

A VANISHING SECT.
 Discussion of the Shakers, resulting from the chloroforming of Sister Sadie Merchant of the Florida colony calls attention to the fact that the sect will probably become extinct before many years. The Shakers neither marry nor give in marriage and their proselyting of late years has been comparatively unsuccessful, even though they have great possessions and their finances are as sound as those of the Bank of England. Half a century ago at the height of their prosperity they had about 5,000 adherents in fifty societies. Now they have only about 600 members and thirteen societies in seven states.

In spite of the fact that newspaper notoriety largely made Roosevelt what he is, he seems to have lost some of his love for the boys. In declining an invitation to hunt bears with a friend in the canebrakes of Louisiana, he gives as a reason the excuse that he never gets any peace from newspaper reporters and has to stay close in. This is the clinching argument that he will not be a candidate again.

 men, representing all sections of the state, have telegraphed Secretary-Manager J. A. Arnold that they expect to attend, for they recognize in the subjects announced for informal discussion the issues that shall determine the future welfare of the state. As an outcome of the discussions it is probable things will be gotten down to a clearly definite basis, but the first work suggested as necessary is a minute investigation to discover just what should be done to solve big Texas problems. A scheme of inquiry will be considered.

 As a leader up to the proper methods to adopt, volunteer "How" talks will be called for at the afternoon sessions on these subjects:

BALD HEADS NOT WANTED.
 Baldness Is Too Generally Considered a Sign of Advanced Age.
 A bald-headed person does not have an equal chance with one blessed with a healthy head of hair, because baldness is too generally accepted as an indication of age. Many large corporations have established an age limit, and refuse to take men over 35 years of age as new employees.
 Probably 65 per cent of bald-headed people may regain a good head of healthy hair on the head, unless the roots of the hair are entirely dead, their follicles closed, and the scalp has become glazed and shiny. We want people to try this remedy at our risk, with the distinct understanding that unless it does exactly what we claim it will, and gives satisfaction in every respect, we shall make no charge for the remedy used during the trial.
 We know exactly what we are talking about, and with this offer back of our statements no one should scoff doubt our word or hesitate to put our remedy to an actual test.
 We want every one in Ada who is suffering from any scalp or hair trouble, dandruff, falling hair, or baldness to try our Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We want them to use it regularly—say until three bottles have been used—and if it does not eradicate dandruff, cleanse and refresh the scalp, tighten the hair in its roots, and grow new hair, we will return every cent paid us for the remedy for the mere asking. There is no formality expected, and we exact no obligation from the user whatever.
 We are established right here in Ada, and make this offer with a full understanding that our business success entirely depends upon the sort of treatment we accord our customers, and we would not dare make the above offer unless we were positively certain that we could substantiate it in every particular. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store—Gwin & Mays Drug Co.

STRIKE AT DENISON
CAUSES TROUBLE
 Denison, Tex., Oct. 4.—Declaring that unless the city officials give the railroad more police protection during the strike in Denison, they will ask for State Rangers to be sent to Denison, local railroad officials gave out a statement that they have been afforded absolutely no protection by the city police force, and that it will be necessary to ask for state help unless the city affords them more protection.
 During the early hours of last night a mob of men and boys began to gather about the Union Station used by passenger trains and the mob increased in size the members began to jeer and hoot at the special deputies in charge of the old Depot Hotel, where the Katy strikebreakers are housed. Several times rocks were hurled at the officers and about 8 o'clock one man was arrested by Officer D. Burris and taken to the city police station. The mob, consisting of about 300, followed close to the officer and prisoner. Upon reaching the curbing in front of the police station, someone struck the officer back of the ear with a rock. He drew his gun and fired a shot to the ground, intending to scatter the crowd. The shot had no effect on the crowd and they pushed ever closer than ever to the prisoner and officer.
 The man arrested was finally landed in the building and the crowd demanded that he be turned loose at once, and broke out a large glass in the police office door. The prisoner was turned loose by the officer and, with cheers from the crowd, joined his comrades again.
 The crowd then made for the old depot, where they pushed as close to the officers as they cared to and with hoots and jeers, backed by a few rocks, surged back and forth until until about 10 o'clock, when they gradually left in twos and threes.
 At different intervals during the time the crowd was around the depot officers fired shots in the air, which was done to scare the crowd, but which seemed to have no effect.
 Mayor Acheson appeared before the crowd and tried to make a talk, urging the men to not do anything rash, but on account of the noise he could not be heard very far.

DIAZ AND REYES MAY
HEAD REVOLUTION
 Mexico City, Oct. 5.—Plans for a new revolutionary movement with ramifications in Oaxaca Morlos, Pach-uca and in the capital, directed against the supremacy of Madero, is said to have been found out by secret agents of the president-elect. October 15 is the date said to have been fixed for the beginning of the new insurrection. According to one who has the confidence of Madero, it is said, the existence of secret caches of arms, which were removed, through connivance of a political official, before they could be seized was found.
 The campaign is to be directed from San Antonio. Of all of these Madero's agents are said to have in their possession undisputable proof, including the names of several prominent individuals connected.
 Specialists from San Antonio, with News of similar import alleged that a junta, in the interest of Reyes, who is to direct a "counter revolution" in Mexico, were published in El Pias today.
 Those dispatches allege that a combination of partisans of General Diaz, General Reyes and Flores Magon has been formed, a coalition to overthrow Madero. Robert Reyes, a son of General Reyes and Jose Peon Del Valle, the latter's erstwhile campaign manager declared that Reyes going to San Antonio had nothing whatever to do with any political movement such as described in the dispatches.

 iously.
 But nature always warns you

 If there are settlements and sediment, Passages frequent, scanty, painful.
 It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Doan's have done great work in this locality.

 William Tolson, Oklahoma Ave., and E. First St., Sulphur, Okla., says: "About two years ago my kidneys became badly disordered. The kidney secretions were unnatural and irregular in passage and this, coupled with backache, made me miserable. The contents of a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I have had occasional backaches since then, due

HUNG IN ADA
 James W. Newman, District Manager of the Brotherhood of American Yeoman, accompanied by J. R. Wilkinson, Special Deputy, found a lady hung around her husband's neck, begging him to take a policy in the Yeomen.
THE BEAUTIFUL FEATURES OF THIS GRAND ORDER IS AS FOLLOWS: Twenty Reasons Why You Should Join
The Yeomen.
 1. On January 1, 1911, we were less than fourteen years old and had a total membership of 139,162.
 2. During 1910 we increased our membership 22-982.
 3. On January 1, 1911, we had a reserve fund of $1,360,614.25.
 4. On January 1, 1911, we had paid in losses to members and their beneficiaries the sum of $5,794,- 189.92.
 5. You don't have to die to win. One certificate covers all—death, total disability, accident, and old age disability.
 6. We begin paying off the certificate to the disabled aged at one-tenth each year when the member reaches his seventieth birthday.
 7. We give detailed publicity to our receipts and disbursements; send free to members each month a bright, newsy magazine.
 8. We have a graded and low rate of assessment, backed by a modern plan of insurance.
 9. We have a reserve plan which is most beneficial, just and inexpensive, guaranteeing permanency and future low cost.
 10. Yeoman reserve fund securities are deposited with the Auditor of the State of Iowa.
 11. Loans from reserve fund must be approved by the Auditor of the State of Iowa.
 12. We have a most rigid medical examination, taking no poor risks.
 13. We operate only in healthful territory.
 14. We prohibit dangerous occupations.
 15. We have a beautiful ritualistic service, based on that English classic, Ivanhoe.
 16. Yeoman everywhere practice the principals of the order—Wisdom, Charity and Protection.
 17. We unite both sexes in one grand order at the same rate of assessment.
 18. We have a low death rate.
 19. We have economical management.
 20. We have been weighed in the balance and found not wanting.
 practiced by some fraternal, the beneficiary of the member who dies soon after joining receives his insurance for practically nothing.
 When one man gets something for nothing, somebody else must pay double for the same thing. This is a law of mathematics and is as true as the multiplication table.
 The Yeomen does not do business that way. We treat all alike. There are no special privileges to a few for which the other members must pay.
How We Help the Living—Accident.
 Don't you know that accidents are constantly increasing? This strenuous life and age is the cause of this increase. Should you be unfortunate and meet with an accident, covered by your policy, the Yeomen Society comes to your aid when you need it most, and advances to you on your certificate the following cash benefits, less the proportionate amount of the expectancy deduction for the reserve fund.
Benefits Paid on Yeomen Certificates

Our Reserve or Emergency Plan.
 As a general thing life insurance charges are either too high or too low.
 Old line rates are too high; ordinarily the rates of lodge insurance is too low.
 The Yeomen furnishes an intermediate rate, and has a reserve plan which is equitable and fair. This reserve plan was devised to enable our Society to maintain a reasonably low rate and still give assurance of the perpetuity of the institution.

ADA MAN SAYS NAME

IS SPELLED WRONG

In a letter to The Oklahoman from Ada, Okla., J. D. Dugan questions the correctness of the name of the Chisholm trail, as it is being spelled, and declares that the only cattle man he ever knew of a similar name was John Chism of Paris, Texas. The letter, in part, follows:

"I have noticed in several issues of your paper where you use the 'Chisholm trail.' I am of the opinion you have not the right name. I have never heard of but one Chism who was a cattle man. He was a native of Paris, Texas, and was named John. He had large cattle interests in New Mexico, where they could fence large tracts of government land which they held without paying for. If there was a Chisholm cattle man, I have never heard of him. I know John Chism's brother and two half-brothers, and invariably they spell the name as he did."
